I understand this is a student learning environment and agree that I may have different students trainers. I may request a specific trainer with the knowldege that my request may not be granted.

What to expect during your initial visit:

Your first visit will be your initial assessment, which entails: resting heart rate and blood pressure readings, body fat caliper testing and body circumference measurements. You will then go through a series of movements while your student trainer is logging your performance. After your assessment is complete, your personal trainer will design your exercise program according to your abilities, goals and needs. On your first day and on re-evaluations, wear shorts and a top that can easily be moved to accommodate the body fat caliper testing. The sites tested are: Female: triceps, iliac crest (hip), sub-scapularis (back) and thigh. Male: pectorals, rectus abdominis (stomach), and thigh.

Physical Activity Readiness Questionnaire - PAR-Q

Please Print Your Name: _____

Regular physical activity is fun and healthy, and increasingly more people are starting to become more active every day. Being more active is very safe for most people. However, some people should check with their doctor before they start becoming much more physically active. If you are planning to become much more physically active than you are now, start by answering the seven questions in the box below. If you are between the ages of 15 and 89, the PAR-Q will tell you if you should check with your doctor before you start. If you are over 69 years of age, and you are not used to being very active, check with your doctor.

Common sense is your best guide when you answer these questions. Please read the questions carefully and answer each one honestly: circle YES or NO.

Medical Questions	YES	NO
1. Do you currently have pain when: <input type="checkbox"/> Standing <input type="checkbox"/> Sitting <input type="checkbox"/> Squatting <input type="checkbox"/> Walking <input type="checkbox"/> Running <input type="checkbox"/> Jumping
2. Has your doctor ever said that you have a heart condition and that you should only do physical activity recommended by a doctor?
3. Do you feel pain in your chest when you do physical activity?
4. In the past month, have you had chest pain when you were not doing physical activity?
5. Do you lose your balance because of dizziness or do you ever lose consciousness?
6. Do you have a bone or joint problem that could be made worse by a change in your physical activity?
7. Is your doctor currently prescribing drugs (for example, water pills) for your blood pressure or heart condition?
8. Do you know of any other reason why you should not do physical activity?

If you Answered YES to one or more of these questions

Talk with your doctor by phone or in person BEFORE you start becoming much more physically active or BEFORE you have a fitness appraisal. Tell your doctor about the PAR-Q and which questions you answered YES.

- You may be able to do any activity you want - as long as you start slowly and build up gradually. Or, you may need to restrict your activities to those which are safe for you. Talk with your doctor about the kinds of activities you wish to participate in and follow his/her advice.

If you Answered NO to all of these questions

If you answered NO honestly to all PAR-Q questions, you can be reasonably sure that you can:

- Start becoming much more physically active - begin slowly and build up gradually. This is the safest and easiest way to go.
- Take part in a fitness appraisal - this is an excellent way to determine your basic fitness so that you can plan the best way for you to live actively.
